MISS DOROTHY M. ANDERSON
Dean of Girls

THANKS

■ Miss Anderson, who came to Belmont in September of 1937, is a former teacher of Social Studies and Head of the Department. Elected Dean of Girls in 1950, she has also been in charge of the Music and Forum clubs, and President of the Massachusetts Deans' Association.

Our Miss Anderson is the epitome of the high standards and ideals of the teaching profession. Her continuing help and interest as adviser to the Blueprint Staff for more than ten years have resulted in several prize winning issues. Miss Anderson's day has always been long for the students of Belmont High School.

MR. JOSEPH F. KOLOUCH
Assistant Principal

■ Mr. Kolouch, who came to Belmont in March of 1943, is the former principal of the high school in Mapleton, Maine. Elected assistant principal in 1944, Mr. Kolouch has been chairman of all the drives at Belmont High School, and he has also been a dedicated financial adviser of the Blueprint staff for seven years.

SALUTE

TO

MR. HIGGINBOTTOM

■ We the class of '64 wish to express our gratitude to our principal, Mr. George Higginbottom. His interest in our academic, extracurricular, and athletic programs has been one of the brightest stars of our high school career. His warm and friendly personality and individual concern for his students will always be deeply appreciated.

Mr. Higginbottom has a deep interest in the education of today's youth. He has served with numerous state and regional educational associations and committees. His honor and high ideals have brought prestige to himself and to our school. We are truly grateful to him.

MR. GEORGE HIGGINBOTTOM
Principal

MR. LESLIE W. CROWSON
Director Belmont Vocational High School

Giving advice.

■ Leslie W. Crowson, Director of the Belmont Vocational School for 12 years, came to our school from the Arlington Fire Department to serve as an auto shop instructor. In his present position as chief administrator of the vocational school, Mr. Crowson organizes the schedules of his students, hires instructors, and finds jobs in industry for his graduating students.

OUR GUIDING STARS

■ We have now reached a new level in our lives. At such a time we realize the importance of our past labors and the challenge of those to come. Education is the basis of a purposeful and successful life; it is the star which will guide us through the challenges of tomorrow.

Our counselors have given freely of their time and talents. They have been the stars that have guided us through the wonderful but often bewildering galaxy of our high school life. We are grateful for their understanding, friendship, and knowledge. Thanks to their unselfish devotion, we now feel ready to face the challenge of tomorrow with confidence and courage.

MISS DOROTHY M. ANDERSON
Dean of Girls

MR. ALBERT J. ORTON
Dean of Boys

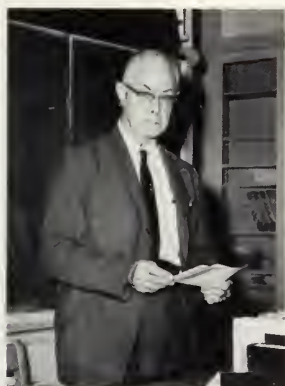

MR. JOSEPH F. KOLOUCH
Assistant Principal

FACULTY

■ Besides guiding the intellectual development of the students, teachers serve as supervisors of club activities, coaches of the sports, and disciplinarians. Such a multifold challenge requires a teacher to be a truly dedicated person who is concerned, above all, with his students.

We have looked for and found in our teachers the dedication which would enable them to guide us through the problems which have arisen. As a result of their teaching and guidance, we are now able to approach the future with confidence.

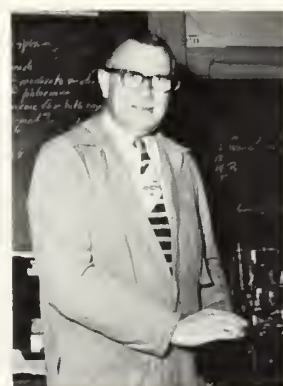

■ A teacher, by the nature of his profession, accepts a great challenge. Since his job is to prepare young people for the future, he must do much more than present information for his students to absorb. He must concern himself with each student as an individual, giving special attention to those who are slow to understand, but never neglecting those who are gifted. He is expected to adjust to improvements in educational methods, and even to contribute to these improvements.

OUR ADVISERS

■ Now you are about to leave Belmont High. This is your quest—the quest to understand, to think independently, and to wonder at the infinite possibilities of a human being. And therefore we say to you—aim high in hope and work, remembering that in both is nobility.

To have worked with you has been a worthwhile experience. As your class advisors, we have watched you work in various social activities. This has provided you with a rich social experience. You have learned to work together for the good of the group. This in itself, is a valuable accomplishment.

Our best wishes for your future success and happiness.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

honey, R. Bruno, P. Topalian, S. Fredd, Mr. Kolouch. Third Row: J. Headley, C. Torrielli, M. Brown, D. Connolly, J. Mulkeen, W. Beebe, W. Skelley, P. DiFraia, M. Hoffman.

REPORTERS—Standing: J. McElroy, Belmont Citizen. Seated: K. Holden, Belmont Herald.

■ The Student Council of the year 1963-1964, advised by Mr. Kolouch, gave students a voice in school government. The council worked to improve school spirit. Entertaining assembly programs, often featuring lecturers or musicians, were sponsored by the group. In the fall, football programs were sold to raise funds for council activities. Having chosen the name Maroon Marauders for our athletic teams, the council continued its search for an emblem to match.

REPORTERS

■ The Belmont High School columnists gave Belmont residents their main insight into school activities. In writing complete, accurate reports, these girls had a difficult job, for they had to be constantly aware of all phases of school life. The success of the reporters in maintaining full coverage was a reflection of the quality of the work they did.

ORCHESTRA—First Row: D. Lipscomb, J. Boyajian, C. Lord, J. McCrensky. Second Row: P. Ananian, S. Atkins, J. Stein.

ORCHESTRA

■ The orchestra, led by Mr. Amoruso, heightened interest in classical music and allowed students to participate in it. Working hard to improve their playing, the orchestra members participated in the Christmas and Spring concerts.

BAND

■ Under the supervision of our new bandleader, Mr. Amoruso, the band played at many school activities. The Veterans' Day Assembly, Christmas and Spring Concerts, and the Memorial Day Parade were some events in which the band participated. Football games and Pep Rallies were brightened by band music.

BAND—First Row: M. Sheils, S. Shears, R. King, K. Burns, J. Sargent, N. Jones. Second Row: S. Nettleton, J. Hermanson, J. Pigeon, L. Knowlton, L. Stanton, G. Sellen, J. Coran, S. Biggs, J. Burns. Third Row: K. Thomas. President: D. Millstein, M. Lee, G. Haffer, A. Currie, S.

LaPierre, E. Tobin, H. Nahigian.

DRUM MAJORETTES—J. O'Brien, J. Sparrow, A. Rouse, A. Boyle, C. Corazzini. Co-Captain: B. McEvoy, Head Majorette: J. Allen, B. Lee, L. Melanson, J. Noroian.

Cold-Cream Guard

■ To the uninitiated, being a member of the music groups had its drawbacks. One had to report early and on time, learn difficult music, and submit to strict discipline. These seeming drawbacks allowed interested students to benefit fully from the talents of Mr. Nettleton and Mr. Amoruso, both to teach music and to make it fun.

■ The BHS majorettes twirled at all the football games and rallies, performed at the Spring Concert and made an appearance with the Tufts University Band for a Scholarship Benefit.

Mr. Nettleton, Head of Music Department

MUSIC GROUPS

DRUM MAJORETTES—Joan O'Brien, Janet Sparrow, Alice Rouse, Ann Boyle, Claire Corazzini, Co-captain; Brenda McEvoy, Head Majorette; Judy Ann Allen, Barbara Lee, Lois Melanson, Janet Noroian. Absent: Donna Bailey, Co-captain.

Finkle. Second Row: S. Dromey, D. Foster, D. Good, M. Lentine, S. Cox, E. Krause, E. Murphy, J. McElroy, S. Metzger, K.

Bedrosian, J. Stein, P. Curtin, F. Santoro, P. Forsythe, C. Mahoney, C. Sucena, M. Morrison, R. Rosenthal. Third Row: M. Hanf, J. Headley, D. Ladd, H. Harrison, J. Hanlon, D. Gonzalez, J. Sullivan, G. Wilmarth, S. Wyman, H. Gan, J. Buskirk, A. Constantine, A. Valley, J. Levitz. (seniors only)

GLEE CLUB

■ The Glee Club participated in the Christmas and Spring Concerts. Members, selected through tryouts in the fall, rehearsed twice weekly.

■ The Choir, giving opportunities to more talented singers, shared its spirit with others in school concerts and public appearances.

CHOIR

CHOIR—First Row: M. Shiels, D. Robinson, S. Davis, M. Fralick, E. Gardner, A. Paul, C. Dean, S. Nettleton, S. Cox, S. DeWilde, J. Gibson, E. Harper, H. Waugh, K. Mansfield, P. Crook, L. Engle, S. Mrs. Johnston

A devoted teacher

Grace Cronin, a frisky typist.

■ Typing for the Blue Print this year were many girls from the Business Department. Faithfully directed by Mrs. Johnston, the girls spent class time on yearbook work as a learning experience. In order to cope with all the work, Mrs. Johnston worked with many of the girls extra periods. Mrs. Johnston's constant willingness to give class and private time was a great aid to the literary staff. All of us are grateful.

PERSONAL TABS—Seated: C. Silva, R. Clifford, J. Boyajian, N. Burns. Standing: B. Fitzgeorge, B. Saklad, H. Marsh, F. Theodore.

■ This year was busy for the Blueprint staff and advisors. Mrs. Sanderson, Mr. Pratt, and Mr. Kolouch, worked late and hard. The personal tab staff spent the fall writing about the fun-loving, loquacious seniors. Rushing about gathering senior photos, faculty candid, and club pictures, the photography staff was constantly active. The literary and art staffs wrote and drew over the omnipresent dummy sheets, straining to meet each deadline. The advertising staff sold space to local firms.

ADVERTISING STAFF—Seated: C. Sucena, P. Courtney, M. Sullivan, J. Gorman. Standing: R. Rosenthal, E. Jensen, K. Altman, R. Gordon, Editor.

SUMMA

■ Vincit qui se vincit! resounded through the halls at meetings of Summa, the Latin Club. The students learned to appreciate classical civilization through Roman ceremonies, such as the installation of officers; lectures; and Homeric fun, like the Saturnalia party and the convention of the Junior Classical League to which all came in costume. Under the guidance of The Misses Steuerwald and Noreen, advisors, the Club spent a year of summa bona.

ROOSKI KLOOB

■ No, we were not harboring a nest of Communists. The Rooskie Kloob helped its members to penetrate the Iron Curtain through Russian films and a 13-course banquet. They practiced Russian in profound discussions, such as "Do the Russians really break promises?" or "Do the translators miss fine meanings in complicated verb forms?", then cooled down at the Moscow Circus.

■ Divided into two clubs, the French Clubs stimulated interest in France. Mrs. Jameson directed the senior club, Les Copains, and Mrs. Mezzacappa and Mrs. Quinn directed the junior club, Les Compagnons. A party opened the new year. Both clubs had guest speakers and attended movies. At the Christmas party, Les Compagnons provided a skit; Les Copains, a can-can, and Les Copains enjoyed a French dinner.

EL ESPAGNOL CIRCULO

■ This year was fun-filled for the German Club. With the advisor, Mr. Penta, the club had an initiation at Harvard Square, a presentation of German drama, a banquet, a barbecue; and toboggan, Christmas and beach parties. While sponsoring these events, the members learned much about modern German life.

■ With ambitious Mr. Martellucci as advisor, the Spanish Club is sure to achieve its goal, increasing the students' awareness of Spanish-American culture. The combination of theater events with guest speakers inspired in every member of the Spanish Club an interest in Latin-America.

■ The Italian Club, under Mr. Veneri, worked to encourage interest in Italian culture, both ancient and modern. In a busy Christmas season members visited an Italian home for orphaned children and participated in the modern language Christmas party. An Italian dinner and theater visits rounded out the year.

■ Clear thinking was stressed by the Forum Club. Student Exchange Day in February, and visits from such speakers as Belmont's State Representative and a representative of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee contributed to the club's goal of appreciation of existing problems.

BELMONTIAN CLUB

■ The Belmontian Club increased the members' knowledge of social etiquette and behavior. With Advice from Miss Kearney, Mrs. Johnston, and Miss Wheaton, the group sponsored informative and stimulating programs. The girls, who were all required to meet scholastic standards, held a tea for old members at the year's start. An orientation meeting was held to admit new members. The year's biggest thrill was the annual Belmontian Formal Dance to which the girls invited dates.

BELMONTIAN FORMAL

■ Midnight in Madrid, one of the social events of the year, was held on December 14, in the Belmont High cafeteria, which was decorated in a gay Spanish manner. Making an attractive background for Herbie Wayne and his Orchestra was the silver figure of a matador. Other walls were decorated with flamenco dancers and a Spanish gentleman serenading his lady, and fans, roses, and stained glass windows added to the atmosphere. Dressed in tuxedos and gowns, couples were received by faculty guests. The combined efforts of co-chairmen Marylyn Lentine and Ginny McMackin, and advisors Miss Kearney, Miss Wheaton, and Mrs. Johnston made the formal a success. Olé!

■ Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the qualities for which members of the National Honor Society are selected. Under the watchful eyes of Mr. Pulliam, it increased its scholarship fund after a sweatshirt sale, talent show, and car wash. An alumni meeting was held during Christmas Vacation.

SERVICE

■ Last year's talent show was such a success that the National Honor Society decided to hold another this year. It was presented on the evening of March 7. With committees headed by Linda Rodman, the general chairman, and by Mr. Pulliam, NHS members worked to stage the show. The proceeds were donated to the Honor Society's scholarship fund. Dozens of students worked before and behind the curtain, and an appreciative audience insured the success of the Annual Talent Show.

HONOR GROUPS

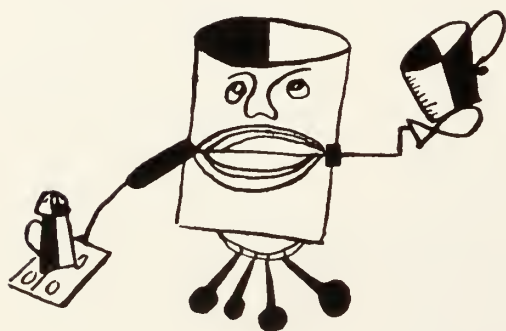

■ Each year, some Belmont seniors are selected by a faculty committee as junior members of local clubs. The Woman's Club, Rotary, Lions Club, and Girls' and Boys' State are all civic-minded, and each made a small contribution to the experience of the young people. In selecting members, each club chose a set number of seniors with good scholarship and school citizenship, who had some interest in the club they entered. Junior members attended several club meetings.

JUNIOR LIONS—R. Gardiner, J. Rahal, P. Haley, G. Hanify, E. Mahoney, K. Newton.

■ Under the leadership of Miss Smith and Miss Kearney, the Home Economics Club had a successful year of mastering the fine arts of managing a home. Guest speakers and films supplied the girls with useful information on the broad field of home economics. The Club's activities were highlighted by the sponsorship of the annual fashion show.

Dear Miss Davis:

The dolls dressed by the girls at Belmont High School are just beautiful and will make many little girls happy at Christmas time.

Our most grateful thanks to you and your students for your interest and thoughtful work which makes it possible for children in the Boston area to have very special dolls from Santa this year.

With my own personal thanks to all for your wonderful service.

Sincerely,

■ Mrs. Schiff, who always aims to develop a lively interest in reading good books, carried this goal into the Bookworms Club. Reading suddenly opened into the field of art! Rather than discussing or reporting on the thought or theme of a book, students expressed themselves with posters. With the books available in the club library, students were introduced to new worlds.

ART CLUB

■ The Art Club, with guidance from Mrs. Sanderson, gave students an opportunity to explore media, make ceramic jewelry, and visit art museums. Representatives from art schools spoke to the group about opportunities in the field of art. The club also gave a great deal of time to illustrating the Blueprint.

■ Under the supervision of Miss Cross, students with interests in the dramatic arts continued to use and develop their skills. Seniors and Juniors participated in the drama festival and presented a Christmas program.

PER ASPERA AD ASTRA

■ Her name may not be so widely recognized as that of her famous sister, but the achievements of Muriel Earhart Morrissey have been significant . . . as an educator, historian, civic worker and now writer. Her undergraduate work was done at Smith College and at Radcliffe. Her Ed. M. degree was conferred (after several years of marriage, two children, and teaching) by Harvard Graduate School of Education. She is a charter member of Zonta International, world-wide service club that annually awards generous scholarships in Amelia Earhart's memory.

■ Mrs. Morrissey is active in historical societies (past Regent of her local chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, member of the Royall House Association and the Medford Historical Society) and in conservation, civic betterment and inter-racial and inter-religious groups. Her husband of 34 years is Albert Morrissey, a Cambridge (Mass.) manufacturer; their home is in Medford. She is a teacher of high school English here in Belmont. COURAGE IS THE PRICE—a labor of love—is her first major published work.

HIGHPOINT

■ Advised by Mrs. Morrissey and Mr. Martellucci, the new school paper, the High Point, was printed several times this year. The paper contained many features. Reporters covered important Belmont High events; noted seniors gave the society touch; and editorials and letters to the editors discussed controversial school issues. Current sports events were described in each edition. A light touch, given by captioned candids, and serials, added to the success of the High Point. The students and advisors carried a heavy burden in producing this school paper.

CLASS OF 1965

To the Class of 1965:

Our three years at Belmont High School are coming to a close; we are ready to leave and venture into a new aspect of life. Your class members will now begin the final and most important step in their high school careers. The class must set an example for underclassmen, an example reflecting pride in the school. A lasting impression for years to come will be made in this way.

On behalf of the class of 1964, may I wish your class the best of luck in all your endeavors, and may your final year at Belmont High School be as happy for you as the past year has been for us.

Respectfully yours,
Richard Bruno
President, Class of 1964

FALL WINTER SPRING SUPPLEMENT

■ Throughout the school year, the departments of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics maintained a high standard of physical condition and provided the opportunity for students to participate in healthful and enjoyable physical activities.

The year began with physical examinations administered by the schools' four doctors and four nurses, followed by eye and ear test. A nurse visited each school daily and was on call in case of an emergency.

The department of physical education maintained four teachers in the high school. This department planned and supervised all physical education programs.

The department of athletics provided thirteen coaches for the high school. As well as providing the coaches, this department hired officials, scheduled games, bought and maintained equipment, and arranged for transportation to all sports events held away from Belmont.

FOOTBALL

Coaches Sutherland and Frink with Co-captains Sullivan and DeVito.

■ This year's Belmont High Football team, under the direction of Coach Frink, achieved its finest record in sixteen years and firmly established its place among the all-time great squads playing under the maroon and white colors. Led by co-captains Brian Sullivan and Bobby DeVito, the spirited and devoted team compiled a 7-1-0 season's record that placed it second in the Middlesex League and fifth in the statewide Class B standings. Because of the lack of returning lettermen, the pre-season outlook was dim. The Marauders were not considered an outside threat to the league title. An offense headed by Sullivan, Dave Meehan, Bob Mara, and Gerry Gerolamo could match any team in the league, but a solid defense was necessary for a successful season. When several of the players gave up probable individual recognition for a concentrated team effort, there was no obstacle too great to be overcome. Armed with a powerful attack and backboned by a defensive unit headed by DeVito, Jack Taverna, Jack Mara, Richie Habeshian, Benny Pettinato, and John Kechejian, the maroon shut out three opponents and defeated every team they faced except league champion Melrose. In the Thanksgiving Day game, Watertown fell before the maroon defense. In post-season honors Jack Mara was chosen as a guard of the first team of the Middlesex All-Stars, while fullback Brian Sullivan, end Tom Nicosia, and halfback Gerry Gerolamo won positions on the second team.

CROSS COUNTRY

■ This year looked to be a promising one for Belmont High's cross-country team. Five returning lettermen and a promising group of Sophomores gave good cause for expectation. Coach Seaman spent many hours with the squad and expected to make an outstanding showing in all meets. However, he never planned on "Mr. Flu" and the many injuries which placed several key trackmen on the disabled list. Numbered among them were captain Joe Hanlon, who was stricken with the flu, and later suffered a fractured nose. Jack Stokinger was slowed down by a bad hip, and a few others were put out of action with minor mishaps. The season was not entirely lost, however; Bob Scarfo did a remarkable job against stiff competition. Bob was ably assisted by Jack Stokinger, Richard Fallon, Dennis Cartwright, Dave Symonds, John McElaney, Diego Gonzalez, Dan Kaplan, Bob Hunter, and Richard Lavine. Seven of the Belmont trackmen were entered in the state meet this year and placed fifth against the sixteen schools which make up Class B. Jack Stokinger placed ninth and was awarded a gold medal.

(tournament)

■ This year's soccer team had a better record than any other soccer team in the years at Belmont High. The team also made the Mass. State Soccer Tournament. In it, Belmont played Sharon High School, which won the game in the second overtime by a score of 5-3 after a disputed goal was taken away from Belmont late in the fourth period. In regular season plays, the team won five, lost five, and tied one. The scoring was led by Paul Graham, with Dave Goldberg and John Amato close behind. The job of bringing the ball up field and setting up the scoring was led by Joe Burke, captain, and Steve Newpol. Charles Occhino, the hustler of the team, sparked it towards the end of the season. The halfbacks were led by Jon Smart, captain elect, whose defensive play was excellent. The fullbacks were Robert Ginns, Ronald Arslanian and David Goldberg. Dave was a first-rate kicker.

■ The field hockey team, led by Co-Captains Lorraine Benoit and Grace Edwards, and coached by Misses Cleary and Smith, tallied to a 2-4-1 record. Coached by Miss Cleary and captained by Lorraine Benoit, the Girls' Basketball team achieved a rewarding and well-deserved record of 4-2.

GYMNASTICS

■ This winter, for the first time, Belmont had a gymnastics team. Mr. Sutherland, who was a top-flight gymnast at Springfield College, coached the team. The captain was Senior Ken Newton.

In a schedule of nine meets the team made respectable showing against experienced squads such as Lexington and Winchester. Highlighting the season was the first win, against Winthrop.

Consistently turning in fine performances, juniors Steve Elwell and Gordon Hoyt showed considerable potential for future years. Praiseworthy were Richard DiBenedetto, Rudy Pizzi, Jim Sherman, Steve Romsey, Tony Grande, and Butch Wilson. Jon Headley suffered back injuries and was unable to compete for much of the season.

Congratulations to our gymnasts for the tremendous effort they invested in making Belmont's first team, and in paving the way for the success of future squads.

HOCKEY

I'm on your team.

■ Under the direction of Coach Frank Bennett, and the able assistance of Skip Viglirolo, the Belmont Marauders skated to a winning season. Co-Captains Bobby Gardiner and Dave Goldberg led the enthusiastic team to a fifth place standing in the very strong Middlesex League.

Early in the season the players were hampered by lack of passing skill and an inability to take advantage of scoring opportunities. They finished the first half with a dismal record, then went on to become the hottest team in the league. The first line consisted of Brian Sullivan, Pete Haley, and Bobby Gardiner. The defense was made up of Richie Habeshian, Dave Goldberg, and backstop Paul "Magee" MacAuley. Contributing to the successful season were Bob Viglirolo, Richie Mullen, Dave Meehan, Jay Mahoney, and John Amato.

The Marauders began their victorious surge by beating Lexington. Belmont then surprised a strong Melrose team. The whole team skated well, with "Magee" playing superbly in the net. Everybody on the team participated in bombing Concord-Carlisle, 7-0, the biggest upset of the season. Flashy Bobby Gardiner registered two goals as Belmont defeated league leading, undefeated Winchester. Backstop MacAuley played the best game of his career as he turned back the highest scoring team in the state with several spectacular saves. The Marauders extended their winning streak to five, with a victory over Watertown. Belmont's brilliant record was dimmed by a 1-1 deadlock with Stoneham, but the season was closed decisively with a victory over Reading.

A save for Magee.

BASKETBALL

Com' on, Mr. Wenner, pass the dice.

■ Just four well-placed shots would have made the difference this year, as the Marauders hustled to a surprisingly good won-lost record. Led by captain Joe Rahal, the BHS basketball team was off to a tremendous start, winning five of its first six games. The only loss was to League Champion Concord-Carlisle. The Marauders were eliminated from the Tech Tourney by the closest of margins, and with a few good bounces, would have qualified. In overtime, both Wakefield and Winchester beat Belmont, and Lexington won twice by a total margin of three points. Coach Mel Wenner closed out his coaching career by moulding a solid team from a group of inexperienced hopefuls. Last season only captain Joe Rahal had seen varsity action. Howie Reynolds had been on the squad, but he had seen limited action. With hard work and desire, the Marauders surprised all the experts by escaping the Middlesex League cellar and winning at least half their games.

INDOOR TRACK

INDOOR TRACK—First Row: H. Alfred, G. Gerolamo, J. Hanlon, K. Goldstein, Captain; R. Fallon, D. Cartwright, K. Quan. Second Row: P. DeBenedetto, R. Lavine, T. Giangreco, D. Symonds, L. Siever, J. Mulkeen, J. McElaney, J. Stokinger, R. Scarfo. Coach Seamen. Third Row: J. Burke, B. Hunter, B. MacGillivray, S. La Pierre, P. Wells, D. Gonzalez, A. Salipante, A. Corsetti.

■ This year's track team enjoyed a fairly successful season winning four out of seven meets and placing second in the state meet.

Ken Goldstein in the shot was a constant point scorer. Along with Ken, Tony Giangreco has been adding points to the total by throwing a constant 42-45 feet. Greg Wilmarth was a double winner in most meets placing in the hurdles and the high jump. Right up front with Greg, in the hurdles, has been Steve "Sweety" Newpol. Andre Salipante and John McElaney, newcomers to the hurdles, should be in the winners' circle next year. Dick Fallon, our two miler, was sick early in the season and was replaced by Bob Hunter. With a lot of hard practice, Bob became a constant point scorer. The mile was well run by Bob Scarfo and Jack Stokinger. The smooth easy running of Diego Gonzales often carried him to first place in the 1,000 yard run. Diego's slightly slower counterpart was Larry "Beaver" Siever. Dave Symonds had a winning season in the 600 with an average time of 1:22. Steve Fishman and Bob Ginns joined Dave in the 600 and improved quickly. The 300 was run by Jerry Gerolamo. Joe Burke went from the 300 to the 50 yard dash, joining Joe Santamaria.

They'll be comin' 'round the mountain . . .

THE CLASS SONG

Tune: "Auld Lang Syne"

We've reached the end of high school days,
And gather with a sigh;
We're filled with memories vivid yet
Of the halls of Belmont High
We treasure years of yesterdays,
The song of grateful hearts,
As last farewells are bid again,
And classmates have to part.

We've reached our goal; we've traveled far;
The journey's just begun
We'll climb to heights, our goals to reach,
And trust they can be won
We'll remember in the days to come,
Those friends of yesteryear,
Who guided us and led us on —
Just memories, always dear

■ IN RETROSPECT—It was a busy spring at Belmont High. The sports teams, though not champions, worked hard during both practice and games. As a carry over from winter sports, the basketball and hockey teams played a game of donkey ball in which the donkeys definitely won. The prom, "Over the Rainbow," provided some less rugged entertainment and is sure to be remembered by all who attended. On Saturday, May 23, the senior banquet was held. After a roast beef dinner, our more talented classmates sang and performed skits in an enjoyable program. As graduation time rolled nearer, frantic drives were made, between the elub beach parties and barbecues, to fulfill all obligations. Then, announced by daily marching practice, came graduation time. Spared by the weatherman, we were able to hold the ceremony at Coneord Avenue Field. As a final event, we had the senior class party, "Bon Voyage," at the school.

Judy . . . another one?

Michael Riselli receives a Latin award.

A Lions Club award.

Yes, Louis, I'm sure it's not a time bomb.

One of four National Merit finalists.

You mean, you never played hockey?!

Sorry, sir, but I've already signed on with the Red Sox.

Thanks . . .

I made it myself; It's apricot kool-aid.

Do you think slugs would work?

Here they come.

Finally! . . . a rest.

Two Happy couples.

He thinks this pepper is an olive!

I wouldn't mention it . . . but she's on my toe.

Was there supposed to be a river here?

Dick . . . I'm not who you think I am!

Ten on Budmont in the fifth race.

I'm not sure . . . I still get those three letters mixed up.

JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM

Ha! ha! They still think they're standing together.

Ahem . . . The music's stopped!

There's poison on my corsage pin?

Yes, Mr. Bruno, we love you—do you have the stink bomb, Howie?

Mr. and Mrs. Veneri.

Mr. Martellucci.

It's red plastic. Grandma got it for me at Lechmere's.

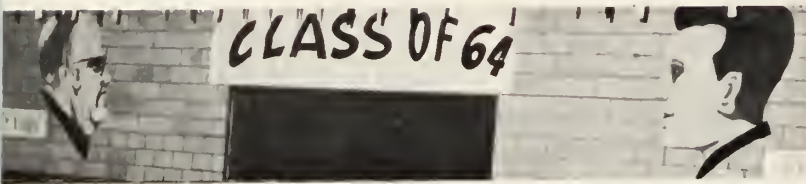

Ye olde class will.

SENIOR BANQUET May 23, 1964

Hurry up, Joyce, it's my turn to read.

Vibrating beds, I hear, are very good for the back.

Sob, sob!

The audience.

An historical look at the class of '64.

Don't worry, Wolfgang, symphony is bound to come back . . . sometime.

GRADUATION

June 3, 1964

Pomp and Circumstance

Dr. Samuelson,
our guest speaker.

Congratulations!

Opening prayer.

Good luck, Richard, nothing can stop you now.

Relax, Joe, all that work has paid off.

What did you say our gift was?

Thank goodness! some girls are graduating too.

I'm seasick already.

The stars to guide us shine from within.
For those seeking to brighten the lives of others, "the dark is light enough."

Close your eyes while I draw my card.

You don't need to inspect it. It's edible.

All aboard for Acapulco.

GRADUATION DANCE

A dry docked vessel, or merely low tide?

And the evening wears on . . .
